

Larry and Josh Nelson win Father/Son Challenge

Larry Nelson became the second father to win the Del Webb Father/Son challenge with two different sons when he combined with Josh Nelson for a second consecutive 12-under 60 in the final round on Sunday.

The Nelsons finished the 36-hole tournament at 24-under 120 to beat Bob and Kevin Tway by two shots. Larry Nelson, a three-time major winner on the PGA Tour in the 1980s, also won the event with son Drew in 2004.

Larry and Josh became the third straight team to win the event with a score of 120, following Bernhard and Stefan Langer, who were the two-time defending champions this week.

Raymond Floyd is the only other father to win with two different sons.
